KINGSTON, JAMAICA – (September 5, 2017) – Scotiabank Group Jamaica Limited (SGJL) announced that after a 20-year career at Scotiabank, Jackie Sharp, President and Chief Executive Officer and Head of Caribbean Central and North, will be leaving to join her family business, effective October 31, 2017.

“Jackie has made significant contributions to Scotiabank and the community over the years, achieving strong financial results while becoming one of the most respected leaders in the financial sector in Jamaica and the Caribbean”, said Brendan King, Senior Vice President, International Banking, Scotiabank. “We are very grateful for her dedication, consummate leadership and passion over many years at the Bank, and wish her well in her new endeavours as she joins her family business in Jamaica.” Jackie joined Scotiabank in 1997 as a Management Trainee and held a number of key positions including Private Banking, Insurance, and Finance, before assuming the Country Head role, and most recently Head of Scotiabank’s Caribbean Central and North covering Jamaica, Bahamas, Cayman, Belize, British Virgin Islands and Turks and Caicos Islands. As the Head of the Caribbean Central and North, Jackie took on expanded regional responsibilities and helped to drive transformational change and improved results in Jamaica and the Caribbean while addressing increased regulatory requirements within a challenging market and in a highly complex and competitive financial services industry. She is also recognized for her work advocating for young leaders within Scotiabank and across the business community.

In view of Jackie’s departure, Jeffery Hall, SGJL Chairman, announced the appointment of David Noel as President and Chief Executive Officer, and Head of the Caribbean Central and North regions.

“David brings a wealth of experience to the team and will help accelerate strategic initiatives to continue to meet the evolving needs of our customers and support our position as the pre-eminent financial institution in the Caribbean region and as we make enhancements to become a digital banking leader in Jamaica”, said Jeffery Hall, Chairman of SGJL.
