

Harbour View Football Club to compete at the first ever Scotiabank CONCACAF U-13 Champions League tournament

Heather Goldson, Regional Marketing Director at Scotiabank, pays careful attention as Harbour View Football Club Under-13 captain, Rojaughn Joseph as he shows off his football skills. He and the rest of the sixteen member team will compete in the inaugural staging Scotiabank CONCACAF U-13 Champions League invitational tournament taking place in Mexico City, August 4-8.

(July 31, 2015) Harbour View Football Club has been selected to participate in the first ever Scotiabank CONCACAF U-13 Champions League invitational tournament taking place in Mexico City, August 4-8. A 16 member team along with five (5) officials will take part in this inaugural staging of the competition.

Eight teams from across CONCACAF regions will compete in the tournament taking place at the Cruz Azul Acoxa – a Cruz Azul futbol training facility. Teams playing in the inaugural tournament were selected based on the performance of senior teams in the CONCACAF Champions League. The participating Under-13 teams include:

- Montreal Impact, Canada
- CS Herediano, Costa Rica
- CD Chalatenango, El Salvador
- Harbour View FC, Jamaica
- Aguilas UAS, Mexico
- Toluca FC, Mexico
- Chepo FC, Panama
- DC United, USA

“Scotiabank is proud and excited to support this new and unique Under-13 tournament,” said Heather Goldson, Regional Marketing Director at Scotiabank. “The Bank has a strong belief in supporting young people in sport and engaging with young athletes to help them develop self-confidence, teamwork and leadership skills. Fostering these opportunities is the key to building strong communities around the world.”
