

This Was A Man!

The Scotiabank Group is saddened by the passing of THE HON. MAYER MATALON, O. J., on Friday, February 3. Mr. Matalon was one of Jamaica's business icons and a Director of the Bank of Nova Scotia Jamaica Limited for over 45 years. He was appointed to the Board of the Bank in 1966 and for most of his tenure he held the position of Deputy Chairman.

On the occasion of his resignation in May 2011, tributes were paid to him:

Brian Porter, Chairman of Scotia Group Jamaica Limited and Group Head of International Banking for Bank of Nova Scotia Canada, in expressing the board's appreciation for Matalon's long service said:

"Mayer Matalon's contribution to the Bank of Nova Scotia's business in Jamaica is widely recognised both inside and outside the Bank. His experience across the Caribbean and Central America has been invaluable to us over the past four decades."

President and CEO Bruce Bowen said that as Chairman of the executive committee of Scotiabank Jamaica, Mayer Matalon has been outstanding in the quality of his guidance to the Bank's management:

"Mr. Matalon has been a mentor and provided strong counsel to a long succession of Managing Directors of the Bank. His foresight, integrity and strength of character have contributed significantly to our success, and he will be missed."

The Scotiabank Group extends its deepest sympathy to his family and to the numerous organisations in which Mr. Matalon played such a leading role in their establishment, development and success.

Scotiabank Group